

TRAINING

$12

River costs as little as $12 PER LEARNER FOR AN ENTIRE YEAR of peer learning, modern mentoring and social learning.

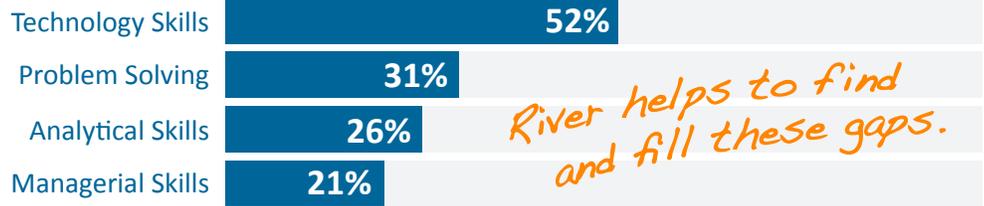

Based on an average one year enterprise contract.

Want your training to become less “single moment” and more “way of working”? Use River to pull together cohorts for collaboration before, during and after a training event so that they can connect with people as they put theories into practice. Take your blended learning to the next level with River by delivering training material directly to employees, so they can leverage it for discussion, reflection and collaboration.

55% of workers in the U.S. reported they are under pressure to develop additional skills to be successful in their current and future jobs.*

Only 21% said they have acquired new skills through company-provided formal training during the past five years.*

52% reported that they added technology skills in the past five years, but few had updated other in-demand skills such as problem solving (31%), analytical skills (26%), or managerial skills (21%).*

“Soon, we may have systems which form the basis of a “google of people,” enabling recruiters and internal managers to find “just the right candidate” or “just the right skilled person” within an organization. These tools can empower employees to find experts, share information, manage their careers and become even more interlinked.”
